Community Facilities

Neoga is a community strongly tied to the early development of central Illinois' railroad industry. A progressive community, Neoga annually hosts a variety of social events, with the largest banquet facility having a capacity of 150 persons.

Neoga hosts a strong banking and finance industry, with the First National Bank of Toledo and First Mid-Illinois Bank and Trust having locations within Neoga. These locally managed, regional banks, with assets in excess of $600,000,000 are capable of assisting in any development projects requiring capital investment.

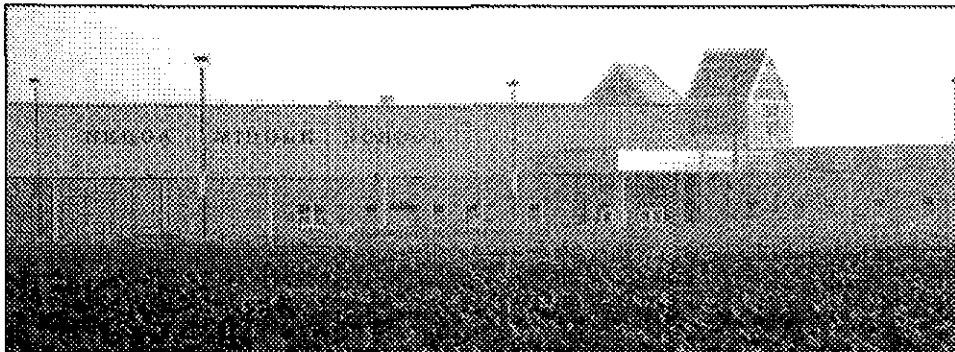

The Neoga News, a community newspaper, is published weekly and features news and sports coverage of interest to area residents.

The City of Neoga is home to a vibrant religious community with seven local churches, including Catholic, Protestant and non-denominational Christian faiths.

The City of Neoga provides a variety of recreational facilities, with public parks featuring tennis and basketball courts. The public also enjoys access to nearby public swimming pools and country clubs, in addition to several area lakes with swimming, boating and water sports. For the avid outdoors person, nearby Fox Ridge and Lincoln Trail State Parks offer camping, hiking, snowmobiling, walking paths and horseback riding.

The Neoga District Library, located in downtown Neoga, affords residents with access to the latest multi-media resource materials, computers and technical services.

Education

Lake Land College, located only 12 miles north of the City of Neoga, offers access to high quality, low cost higher education and workforce training programs.

Eastern Illinois University in Charleston (25 miles north-west) provides students access to

The City of Neoga's RLF Loan Program

What is the "Revolving Loan Fund" ?

It is a source of locally controlled financing to be used in cooperation with traditional bank loans to assist credit-worthy existing and start-up businesses within the community. The funds utilized by the city were originally provided by a state grant program known as the Community Development Assistance Program (or CDAP).

Once received by the city such grant funds were used to support Gap financed business loans which are now being repaid with interest. Such city funds are being deposited into a "Revolving Loan Fund" (or RLF) from which additional loans are being made to help expand present operations or establish new ones within the

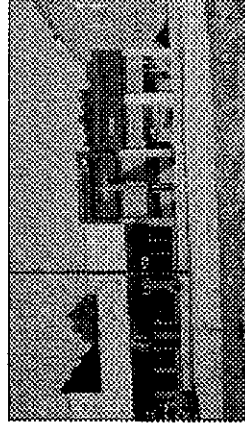

Details of the RLF Loan Program

Who's Eligible to Apply for Assistance ?

Both existing businesses interested in expanding their present operations within the community as well as prospective new investors interested in establishing industrial or commercial operations within the city are eligible to receive RLF loan assistance. The applicant business can be a proprietorship, partnership, land trust or any of a variety of forms of corporations as long as the entity is legally constituted and has the power to enter into the necessary loan closing documents with the city.

What Types of Projects are Likely to Receive Assistance ?

Only creditworthy projects which document a high likelihood of loan repayment ability will be seriously considered under the city's RLF Loan Program. The project itself must be located within the most current corporate limits of the city (or its extra-territorial zone) and must generate (or at least retain) employment opportunities which principally benefit low and moderate-income local residents through employment opportunities.

Amount of RLF Loan

No more than one-third of the project's total cost may be provided by the RLF loan. At least one full time equivalent job must be created (within one year of loan closing) for each $15,000 in RLF loan assistance.

RLF Rates and Terms

RLF loans will carry with them fixed rates of interest equal to one-half (50%) of the "Prime" rate as published in the Wall Street Journal at the time of the loan closing, but shall not be less than three (3%). The repayment period for RLF loans will generally match the life-expectancy of the assets being financed:

- Inventory/Working-Capital 1-3 yrs
- Office Furniture/Fixtures 3-4 yrs
- Rolling Stock and vehicles 2-4 yrs
- Equipment 5-7 yrs
- Real Estate/Improvements 7 yrs

The above stated interest rates and repayment terms are subject to review and possible alteration annually by the Neoga City Council, but the rates for previously closed RLF loans will remain unchanged.

Uses of RLF Loan

RLF loan proceeds may be used for both fixed asset and working capital purposes including:

- Land Acquisition, Building Purchases;
- On-Site Improvements & New Construction;
- Renovation, Expansion or Modernization of Existing Facilities;
- Acquisition or Repair, Shipment and Installation of Machinery and Equipment;
- Purchase of Necessary Rolling Stock;
- Office Furniture, Fixtures and Equipment;
- Raw Material or Parts Inventory; and/or
- Working Capital Requirements, etc.

Fees and Time Frames, Etc.

Prospective RLF loan applicants should be aware that, if the project is approved, the applicant will sustain certain legal and filing fees associated with loan closing. In some instances, other professional fees for accounting services, appraisals, and/or environmental site audits may also be sustained.

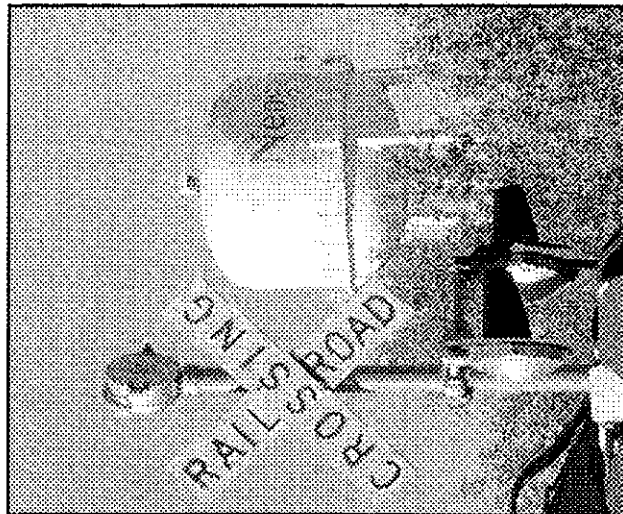

Prospective loan applicants should also be aware of the time frames associated with preparing, reviewing, approving and closing an RLF loan with the city.

Normally 2-3 weeks is required to prepare a complete loan application followed by another 1-2 weeks for review and approval by the city. Loan closing can normally occur within 2-3 weeks of formal loan approval by the Neoga City Council.
